- (5) In a prosecution for an offence under this Act or the regulations, the act or omission complained of, for which the prosecution was instituted, is, unless the defendant proves to the contrary, deemed to relate to the transportation, packing, storage or marketing of the natural product in other than interprovincial or export trade.

(3) The remaining provisions and sections of this Act must not be deemed or held to be inoperative or beyond the powers of the Legislature, but are valid and operative, and have the same effect as if they had been originally enacted as separate and independent enactments and as the only provisions of this Act.

(4) All the provisions of this Act that are within the powers of the Legislature remain in full force even if some provisions are held to be beyond the powers of the Legislature, the intention of the Legislature being to give separate and independent effect, to the extent of its powers, to every enactment and provision in this Act.
