
Craig Evans was the Chief Executive Officer and Corporate Secretary for a large poultry processing company in Manitoba and has extensive experience working in a heavily regulated environment. Craig has a B.Comm from UBC, an MBA from Queen's and a professional Director designation from the Institute of Corporate Directors. Craig currently leverages his experience and broad management background through his consultancy Elm St. Strategies which provides executive and board consulting support and strategic planning services. Specifically, Craig has an extensive background in food processing, production, manufacturing, agriculture, and biotechnology, with experience in strategic planning, sales and marketing, human resources, plant management, distribution, value capture, patent protection and organizational design. Craig has served on several agricultural and community Boards and Commissions holding positions as Chair, Vice Chair, and overseeing governance, human resource, and finance committees. In 2019, Craig was the Vice Chair of the Board for the Grey Cup winning Winnipeg Blue Bombers.

Craig has been an Independent Member of the Commission since 2022.
