
Hugh Reynolds and his brother Stan are the main decision makers at Reynelda Farms. This family farm has been operating at various locations in Delta for more than 100 years and it sees everyone participating at some level during the year.

Hugh graduated from UBC in Agriculture in 1976 and he has been attending grower, board, and commission meetings for more than 50 years. He was elected to the BCVMC in 2007 and expects to retire from his position after this term in 2027.
