

AMENDING ORDER 1
TO
GENERAL ORDER MADE OF JANUARY 2, 2025

MADE BY THE BRITISH COLUMBIA VEGETABLE MARKETING COMMISSION
ON NOVEMBER 07, 2025

The British Columbia Vegetable Marketing Commission orders as follows:

1. Section 7 of the General Order of January 2, 2025 is repealed and replaced with the following:

No Transferability of Licences

7. (1) Licences are not transferable.
 - (2) Where a Licence has been issued by the Commission to persons who carry on business in partnership, whether in the names of each of the partners and/or in the business name carried on by those partners, such licence will be cancelled without further order upon a direct or indirect change in the legal or beneficial majority interest in the partnership, relative to the majority interest in the partnership at the time the Licence was first issued. Any other change in the legal or beneficial interest in the partnership requires prior approval from the Commission.
 - (3) Where a Licence has been issued by the Commission to a corporation, the licence will be cancelled without further order upon a direct or indirect change in the legal or beneficial ownership of the majority voting shares of the corporation, relative to the majority voting shares of the corporation at the time the Licence was first issued. Any other change in the legal or beneficial ownership of the shares of the corporation requires prior approval from the Commission.
2. Section 26 of the General Order of January 2, 2025 is amended by adding the following subsection immediately after subsection (1):
 - (1.1) Agencies must market Greenhouse Crops, Processing Crops and Storage Crops in accordance with a marketing plan acceptable to the Commission. No change may be made to an Agency's approved marketing plan without the Commission's prior approval.

3. This Amending Order comes into effect on November 07, 2025.

DATED at Surrey, British Columbia on November 07, 2025.
