

---

After Daphne Stancil left the ministry responsible for agriculture for the Province of British Columbia, where she held the position of Assistant Deputy Minister responsible for strategic policy, she served as chair of the BC Chicken Marketing Board for three years from 2010 to 2013. Beginning in 2014, Daphne served as a member of the BC Farm Industry Review Board for several years. She continues to serve as a member of the BC Environmental Appeal Board cluster of tribunals, which she was appointed to in 2014. Daphne is currently an independent member of the BC Vegetable Marketing Commission and has been since May 1, 2025.

---