

Kiren Sihota grew up on her family's carrot farm in Surrey, where they've been farming in the Lower Mainland and Sumas Valley since 1976. After working as a Chartered Accountant in public practice, she returned to their farm full-time and now help lead their operations. Kiren is honoured to represent the storage crop sector on the Commission.